

Missional Mentoring

Whether you are looking for Leadership Development, Discipleship, or Mentoring, Missional Mentoring is a special type of men's small group made up of high potential men facilitated by one of our church leaders. It is our goal to impact the lives of men in a way that points them toward an integrated Christian life. We believe that we can have successful careers AND be learners and followers of Jesus Christ AND be great husbands, fathers, church members, sons, civic leaders, disciple-makers and friends . . . ALL at the same time.

Leaders from our church will be our mentors. These mentors will endeavor to share what they have learned about success, most often focusing on what they have messed up on so that you can avoid the mistakes they made along the way. Here are the qualities of the type of men we are looking for:

1. Potential leaders, men who have the potential to be influencers.
2. Objective men who are willing to take direct, pervasive feedback without being defensive.
3. Malleable men who will look honestly at themselves in the mirror and make changes to improve.
4. Humble men who see their own brokenness and express a hunger for personal growth.
5. Committed Jesus-followers, men who have a relationship with Jesus, or at least think they do. We're not looking for seekers or non-believers.
6. Willing to pay it forward, men who will commit to leverage their life experience to influence other guys.

How Missional Mentoring Works

Group Mentoring

Mentors pick a group (3-8) of guys that are a couple seasons of life behind them and mentor them for 9-12 months. The group gets together once-a-month for three hours and for two retreats.

Read A Book

In between the once-a-month meetings, the mentor assigns a book that all of the guys read. They write a one-page net out of what they learned and bring it to the next session.

Memorize A Verse

Between sessions, the mentees are assigned 1-2 verses of scripture to memorize. They must come to the next meeting prepared to recite the verses from memory.

Growth Assignment

Each month a homework assignment is given to the mentees to complete and come ready to report on their results at the next meeting. Assignments are designed to help the men become better followers of Christ, husbands, fathers and leaders.

Community

Through the shared pursuit of becoming a fully alive man, living a God-centric life, strong community develops between the mentees as learn how to build accountability through closeness.
