Group Discussion Guidelines:

We want this to be a safe place to learn and share, so here are a few ground rules to make this journey a positive experience for everyone.

1. Commit to confidentiality.
2. Please do not use your cellphone during this time.
3. Refrain from giving unsolicited advice; it can feel like criticism.
4. Use "I" statements rather than "you" statements.
5. It's important to participate but please do not dominate.
Please leave room for everyone to speak.

“The Kingdom is here because the King is on the scene.”

1. Considering the Story of the Old Testament and the expectation with which it ends, what are the implications of Jesus' words in Mark 1:15?
[Mark 1:15 (NIV) "The time has come," he said. "The Kingdom of God has come near. Repent and believe the good news!"]

2. In Luke 24 (and throughout the Gospels), Jesus understands identity, ministry, and mission according to the Old Testament story. Choose a memorable scene from the Old Testament (Genesis – Malachi); explain how might Jesus tell these stories according to himself?

(Ex. Creation, Fall, Abraham, Exodus, Wilderness, Promised Land, Judges, Kings, Exile, Return from exile, prophets, psalms, etc.)

3. For the decedents of the Jews who returned from exile, rebuilt the temple, and are waiting for another King in the line of David (2 Samuel 7), how would the "good news" of the Kingdom be received?

“We are not the ones to destroy evil but to further incarnate good.”

4. How would you explain the difference between “destroying evil” and “incarnating good”? How do you see these things working differently in our world? How is this playing out in your life?

PRAYER: Invite the Holy Spirit to come and change your vision to His.

“Lord, I need a new vision, help me to see things differently...things like....”
