Role Overview

The CAMPUS STUDENT PASTOR (CSP) is responsible for overseeing the execution of fruitful ministry to junior high and high school students at one or more campuses of The Chapel. This includes recruiting and training a volunteer Chapel Students (CS) Team to implement all aspects of this ministry. This person must provide excellent servant leadership, clear communication, vision, direction, and motivation. He/She must embody The Chapel's culture and values by being third, expecting big, trusting big, being real, having fun, and sharing in the vision for every student to know and love Jesus, be led by the Spirit, share the Gospel and live on mission. This person must also serve on the larger CS team to fight for unity and collaboration in making Chapel Students Chapel-wide a win!

Primary Responsibilities

1. Lead the Chapel Students Volunteer Team
 - Partner with the Campus Pastor and Director of Chapel Students to identify potential ministry team members and strategies
 - Inspire the Chapel Students Team to embody the vision and strategies of The Chapel's Student Ministry
 - Organize, equip and inspire the Chapel Students Team to serve according to their giftedness
 - Equip the Chapel Student Team to disciple students
 - Maintain an 8 to 1 student/volunteer ratio
2. Oversee Chapel Students Programming
 - Understand the vision and purpose of the weekly Chapel Students (junior and senior high) gatherings
 - Insure adequate preparation and implementation of Chapel Students' weekend and midweek programming
 - Participate in brainstorming and training meetings led by the Director of Kids and Students
 - Facilitate students' participation in campus and church-wide Chapel Students events, retreats, campus, etc.

Campus Student Pastor

3. Oversee the discipleship of students by ensuring that every student is known and loved by a mature Christ-following adult. This includes developing and cultivating an incarnational presence with students in their day-to-day environments, i.e. find organic ways for you and your team to hang out with students.
4. Ensure clear, consistent communication with students, leaders and parents concerning Chapel Students happenings
5. Actively support and engage with the Director of Kids and Students, the Director of Chapel Students and other CSPs to foster unity and collaboration toward The Chapel's Beliefs, Purpose, Values and Vision among the entire leadership and volunteer team
6. Other campus responsibilities include:
 - Participation in scheduled Campus Team meetings
 - Participation in all Campus events
 - Visitations, counseling, weddings, funerals, etc. as needed
 - Other pastoral duties as assigned by the Campus Pastor and/or Associate Campus Pastor
